Albania and Bosnia & Herzegovina need to resolve domestic differences, say MEPs

Political wrangling held back the progress of reform in Albania and Bosnia & Herzegovina in 2014, say MEPs in two separate resolutions voted on Thursday. Both countries need to strengthen their democratic processes, tackle corruption and put in place professional and depoliticised public administrations. By cooperating to achieve these aims, their political forces can move them closer to the EU

EU-Georgia: Commission disburses €10 million assistance

The European Commission, on behalf of the EU, disbursed €10 million in loans to Georgia. This represents the loan part of the first tranche of the EU's €46 million Macro-Financial Assistance (MFA) for Georgia approved in August 2013. It is part of the EU's wider engagement in Eastern Europe and serves as an exceptional crisis-response instrument for neighbouring countries.

EU Commission disburses €250 million assistance to Ukraine

The European Commission disbursed a loan of €250 million to Ukraine. This is the last disbursement under the first Macro-Financial Assistance (MFA) operation for Ukraine, which amounts to a total of €610 million. The objective of the MFA programme is to address Ukraine's urgent financing needs, while supporting Ukraine's economic stabilisation and reform agenda.

€1 billion for Youth Employment Initiative in 2015

One billion euro in EU funding to help member states get up to 650,000 young people into work will be delivered in 2015 thanks to European Social Fund rule changes approved by Parliament on Wednesday. This EU Youth Employment Initiative funding tops up European Social Fund (ESF) money in the 20 member states with regions where youth unemployment exceeds 25%.

Parliament supports shift towards advanced biofuels

A draft law to cap crop-derived biofuel production and accelerate the shift to alternative sources was voted by Parliament on Tuesday. It aims to cut greenhouse gas (GHG) emissions caused by the growing use of farm land for biofuel crops. "We succeeded in getting a very technical, technological and ideological file to go ahead", said lead MEP Nils Torvalds (ALDE, FI), after Parliament endorsed the law (the draft had already been agreed informally by MEPs and ministers).

Fish discard ban: MEPs delay sanctions

Fishermen will have two years to "adapt" before sanctions for failing to comply with the new fish "discard" ban take effect, under a law passed by Parliament on Tuesday, 28TH of April. "The new rules oblige fishermen to land all fish caught during a fishing trip. The agreement we have found helps mitigate some of the negative effects of the new rules for fishermen", said rapporteur and Fisheries Committee chair Alain Cadec (EPP, FR).

Ships' CO2 emissions: MEPs approve new reporting rules

Draft EU rules requiring ship owners using EU ports to monitor and report CO2 emissions each year received the support of the House on Tuesday. The new rules, already informally agreed with the Council of Ministers, will apply from 2018 on to ships over 5,000 gross tons, regardless of the country in which they are registered, as a first step towards cutting their greenhouse gas emissions.

MEPs clamp down on wasteful use of plastic carrier bags

EU countries will be required to reduce the use of the commonest and most polluting plastic bags drastically under new rules voted by Parliament on Tuesday, 28TH of April. "Billions of plastic bags end up directly in nature as untreated waste. It damages nature, harms fish, birds, and we have to get to grips with this", said Margrete Auken (Greens/EFA, DK), who is steering the legislation through Parliament.
