Inter-American Network on Public Administration (INPAE)

PRESS RELEASE

XII Annual Conference

As every year since 2004, we are pleased to invite you to join us at the annual Conference of the Inter-American Network on Public Administration. This year, our main event is a joint initiative of INPAE and the PhD Program in Government and Public Policies of the Universidad de Costa Rica. Under the theme “State, public policies and internationalization”, the conference will be held on 23rd and 24th of May, at the CICAP facilities (Centro de Investigación y Capacitación en Administración Pública)

Who we are? The Inter-American Network on Public Administration Education was founded in 2003 under the support of The Network of Schools of Public Policy, Affairs, and Administration (NASPAA) by a group of higher education institutions of the Americas, committed to the advancement of education in public administration and public policy in the region, but also to strengthening North-South and South-South partnerships among its institutional members. The management of an institution of partnership, solidarity and institutional relations character development is not possible without the help of modern media network. Modern international networks seek to strengthen its relations with its stakeholders, through virtual networks, increasing them and strengthen the knots and links.

Currently, it is chaired by Palmira Rios, PhD (Universidad de Puerto Rico), and Vice President is Cristian Pliscoff Varas, PhD (Universidad de Chile).
